

Browne Jacobson announces 12 promotions to new senior associate role

Browne Jacobson has announced the promotion of 12 lawyers to its new senior associate role.

 25 March 2019

Browne Jacobson has announced the promotion of 12 lawyers to its new senior associate role.

The promotions cut across four of the firm's offices with six promotions in Nottingham, three in London, two in Birmingham and one in the firm's Exeter office.

The new senior associates by office are:

Nottingham: Georgina Euden (Property), George Petrou (Commercial Disputes Resolution), Caroline Jones (Employment), James Busby (Banking), Helen Gibbons (Insurance - litigation) and Dmitrije Sirovica (Public Law)

Birmingham: Simon Brooks (Property) and Kirk Glenn (corporate)

London: Will Barrington (Construction), Serene Allen (Commercial Dispute Resolution) and Willem Basson (Commercial Dispute Resolution)

Exeter: Jennifer Grigg (Government & Infrastructure)

The promotions will take effect from 1st May 2019 and will bring the total number of senior associates at the firm to 99.

Senior Partner Derek Bambury said:

"We recently created a new senior associate role to recognise the achievements of those lawyers who are operating at a consistently high level and establish a clearer pathway to help our people to progress in their careers."

"This year's promotions demonstrate the strength and depth of our offering to clients, both regionally and in key specialist areas and we look forward to supporting them in further developing their careers."

Contact

Henrietta Scott

Head of Marketing

PRTeam@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 2299

Related expertise

Services

Banking and finance	Construction and engineering services	Dispute resolution and litigation
Commercial law	Criminal compliance and regulatory	Employment
		Subsidy control