

Chloe Poskitt

Legal Director

 Nottingham
chloe.poskitt@brownejacobson.com
+44 (0)115 934 2058

Chloe is a dispute resolution legal director specialising in complex commercial disputes, with particular expertise in the energy, manufacturing and retail sectors. Chloe acts for domestic and international corporates, public sector clients and charities. Chloe works closely with her clients to arrive at business-led solutions to their issues to minimise risk and maximise success.

For more than 12 years, Chloe has advised clients on all aspects of litigation and alternative dispute resolution as well as advisory work on litigation risk and avoidance. Chloe has a broad commercial practice which includes complex and high-value domestic and international contractual disputes, breach of restrictive covenants (she is the firm's leading individual), cross-border disputes, misrepresentation claims, breach of warranty claims, supplier/consumer disputes, company/shareholder disputes, injunctions and contentious insolvency.

Clients appreciate Chloe's flexible and proactive approach, praising her ability to adapt to ever-changing goals and develop alternative strategies so that clients achieve the best and most cost-effective results.

Chloe is an active member of the firm's Community Action Committee, Social Mobility Committee and Women in Leadership group. Outside of work, Chloe is a trustee to a registered charity, Phil's Kids, which her family set up to raise funds for individuals suffering from Huntington's Disease.

Expertise

Sectors

Education	Health	Technology
Energy and infrastructure	Manufacturing and industrials
Government	Retail, consumer and logistics

Featured experience

Energy dispute

Advising a university in relation to a multimillion-pound energy dispute, providing detailed analysis of the contractual obligations, force majeure, termination options and advice on breaches.

Joint venture dispute

Acting for a local London Borough authority on a dispute with its joint venture partner in relation to a £200m regeneration scheme which included advising on the contractual mechanisms for a default/deadlock, termination and also potential insolvency considerations.

Misfeasance/antecedent transactions

Advising the joint liquidators of a group of companies (market leaders in UK commercial and utility-scale solar industry). on possible multi-million claims against the former directors and various third parties.

Restrictive covenants

Obtaining an injunction to prevent a senior employee of a global pharmaceutical company from working for a foreign competitor in breach of his restrictive covenants.

Testimonials

Clients

"Thanks for confirming and thank you for your advice and patient assistance in helping us reach such a good settlement."

In-house counsel, leading manufacturer ,

"I just wanted to say how happy you have made me feel and you have just been so accommodating when I have sent instructions to you at the last minute. I know that you will always respond within a quick time, turn around the advice quickly and I have complete trust that you will deliver."

In-house counsel, University client,

"Gold stars all round."

Head of Litigation at a big six energy supplier ,