

Matthew Dorman

Senior Associate

 Birmingham

matthew.dorman@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 2171

Matt is a senior associate in our corporate finance team with a focus on private equity and complex mergers and acquisitions.

Matt has experience acting for private equity sponsors and global corporates on a broad range of domestic and international transaction. He also has experience advising management teams in relation to incoming private equity investments.

Matt works closely with a number of key private equity and global corporate clients of Browne Jacobson including Palatine Private Equity, NorthEdge, LDC, Apiary Capital, PBE Group, Sodexo and Equable Partners.

Featured experience

Cooper Parry

Advised the partners of leading accountancy firm, Cooper Parry on their agreement for Dutch based firm, Waterland Private Equity to invest in the business.

Coniston Capital

Advised private equity firm, Coniston Capital on its buyout of kitchen design manufacturers, Harvey Jones.

Palatine on key CTS exit

Advised Palatine on key CTS exit.

Palatine Private Equity on its buyout of Midlands based developer

Advised Palatine Private Equity on its buyout of Midlands based developer of affordable homes.

Related expertise

Services

Corporate	Private equity services	Transaction support and due diligence
Mergers and acquisitions		