Sam specialises in insurance/reinsurance policy coverage and dispute resolution acting on behalf of reinsurers, reinsureds and their insureds, both in the UK and worldwide.

Sam has particular experience in professional indemnity, political violence, financial institutions/D&O, commercial property, cyber and Artificial Intelligence. She regularly acts on high value, multi-jurisdictional disputes advising on both policy application and commercial strategy.

Sam has provided non-contentious insurance and reinsurance advice including advising on policy wordings, compliance with international sanctions and FCA regulation.

Sam also has advocacy experience, having appeared regularly in the County Courts in the UK and the District and Supreme Courts in Australia.
