

Natasha Davison

Associate

 Birmingham

natasha.davison@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 2568

Natasha is an associate in our construction team and advises clients on both contentious and non-contentious matters, specialising in advising public sector clients including local authorities and clients within the health sector.

Having originally joined our construction team as a paralegal working for our public sector clients, Natasha qualified into our construction team and since qualification has taken a particular interest in PFI/PPP contracts and long-term projects.

Expertise

Construction

Engineering, procurement and construction

Featured experience

Government Department

Advising upon various issues in connection with a DBFO contract for the maintenance and operation of a major road.

Local Authority

Providing advice in relation to a street lighting PFI contract.

Local Authority

Undertaking adjudication proceedings in relation to maintenance obligations under a long-term maintenance contract.

NHS Trusts

Undertaking due diligence exercises in respect of the contractual documentation for long-term decarbonisation projects.