

Q & A: UK's new immigration system: how will it impact EU Nationals and their employers?

On 31 December 2020, free movement of people will cease to operate in the United Kingdom as a new immigration system will be introduced from 1 January 2021 and the government has provided further details of the new system on 13 July 2020.

05 August 2020

On 31 December 2020, free movement of people will cease to operate in the United Kingdom.

A new immigration system will be introduced from 1 January 2021 and the government has provided further details of the new system on 13 July 2020.

The proposed system is aimed to be a "fair and firm" points-based system designed to attract high-skilled workers. This will apply to both non-European nationals and European nationals.

The changes will affect the way in which organisations recruit EU & EEA citizens who will require sponsorship from employers. This is a significant change for EU employers in the UK and we recommend our clients plan ahead and prepare for the changes now.
