

Monthly insurance policy wording update

The Word, October 2024

28 October 2024

For our October edition of The Word we cover a range of topics of interest from across the insurance sector, including updates to the UK's Arbitration Bill, changes to the ICAEW minimum PII requirements and the potential impact of the Employment Rights Bill on EPLI policies.

We also look at the case of Peabody v National Housebuilding Council, which gives useful guidance on limitation periods in the event of contractor insolvency.

Finally we consider the impact of weight loss drugs on medical insurers and the potential for increased transparency between vehicle manufacturers and insurers in relation to insurability by design.

We hope you find this edition informative and insightful.

Tim

Contents

Updates to the UK's Arbitration Bill	→
ICAEW: Changes to PII requirements	→
What does the Employment Rights Bill mean for employment practices liability insurance?	→
Contractor insolvency: Peabody Trust v NHBC	→
Ozempic: The rising costs and coverage issues of weight loss medication	→
Insurability by design: Increased transparency for vehicle manufacturers and insurers	→

Key contact

Tim Johnson

Partner

tim.johnson@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)115 976 6557

Related expertise

Coverage disputes and policy interpretation

Insurance claims defence

Policy drafting and distribution