There is a lot of confusion about what grades information can and cannot be shared with students and when that information can be provided. In this webinar, data protection in schools expert Dai Durbridge will provide clarity on the issue.

This webinar looks at:

- Explain how to manage requests for information received before results are released
- Clarify how and when rankings can be released
- Explore your options for proactively managing data sharing
- Provide you with template letters for replying to requests before and after results day
