

Midlands corporate finance and banking transaction update - 2019 so far

Our latest transaction update details some of the key transactions we have been involved in during the last quarter, covering a wide range of corporate and banking activity.

11 June 2019

Our banking and finance team continue to be busy despite the geo political environment and it shows no sign of slowing down! To support our fast growing team we have recently recruited a new partner into our Birmingham office, Paul Hill - who joins us with 10 years' banking and finance experience at A&O.

Managing facilities from banks and other funders is often complex and an essential part of an organisation's success. Our specialist banking and finance team provides hands-on project management with an entrepreneurial approach.

If you need assistance on a funding transaction we would be delighted to assist you. Please give us a call.

We share a flavour of some of the Midlands based transactions the banking and finance team have been involved in recently.
