

Monthly insurance policy wording update

The Word, January 2025

29 January 2025

For our January edition of The Word we cover a range of topics of interest from across the insurance sector.

In light of recent events, we take a look at the decision in North State Deli v Cincinnati Insurance Co and the implications of this for the insurance industry. We also consider what lessons insurers can learn from the FCA's Consumer Duty good and poor practice reports.

After Citizens Advice's call for it to be appointed as statutory consumer advocate in all essential markets, we examine what this would mean for insurers in the UK.

Additionally, we consider the potential impact of the Vulnerability Registration Service in the insurance sector.

Finally, we explore the Hiscox CEO's vision for AI.

We hope you find this edition informative and insightful.

Tim

Contents

North Carolina Supreme Court COVID-19 decision in North State Deli v Cincinnati Insurance Co →

Consumer Duty: Latest good and poor practice report from the FCA →

A new statutory consumer advocate for insurance? →

The Vulnerability Registration Service: Helping insurers support vulnerable customers →

Hiscox CEO's vision for AI →

Key contact

Tim Johnson
Partner

tim.johnson@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)115 976 6557

Related expertise

Services

Coverage disputes and policy interpretation

Insurance claims defence

Policy drafting and distribution