

Browne Jacobson announces fifteen partner and legal director promotions for 2024

01 May 2024

UK and Ireland law firm Browne Jacobson has announced the promotion of 15 of its lawyers to partner and legal director roles. The promotions come into effect from 1 May 2024. This growth of the firm's partnership brings the total number of partners and legal directors to 88.

The firm has also announced the promotion of 20 lawyers to senior associate roles.

The promotions span the firm's Cardiff, Birmingham, Nottingham, Manchester and London offices, and builds on the twelve partner and legal director promotions from last year.

Caroline Green, Senior Partner at Browne Jacobson, said:

"At Browne Jacobson, we are dedicated to investing in the future of our lawyers, with this year's group of new partners and legal directors showcasing the exceptional quality of our legal services. Our newly promoted individuals have each made a remarkable contribution to our firm and they bring invaluable expertise which will make a real difference to both our clients and the firm's partnership. We very much look forward to supporting them as they play a vital role in driving our business forward and continue to develop their professional careers at the firm."
