

Hear from Carl May-Smith providing a CQC and health & care regulatory update - February 2019

Carl May-Smith will look at some of the most recent developments relating to the CQC and other areas of regulation affecting health & care providers.

18 February 2019

Carl May-Smith will look at some of the most recent developments relating to the CQC and other areas of regulation affecting health & care providers, including in particular a prosecutions update outlining the first CQC criminal penalty for duty of candour failings, recent CQC guidance and upcoming changes, the latest Tribunal decision on CQC registration conditions and what the Court of Appeal decision in Ofsted v Durand means for challenging CQC inspection reports.

Useful resources:

- London Fire Brigade - advice for residential care homes.

Contact

Carl May-Smith
Barrister (Partner)

carl.may-smith@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)115 934 2024

Related expertise

Criminal compliance and regulatory

Health and safety