

Ascensus and O Shaped workshop: Ethics in the spotlight

📍 The Parkgate Hotel, Cardiff

📅 03 June 2025

An ethics and regulatory training workshop for in-house lawyers in collaboration with our partner, O Shaped, who were referenced as a learning and development resource and highlighted as an example of ethical leadership by the SRA in its in-house solicitors thematic review.

We aim to open discussions around managing ethical challenges as well as the professional obligations that in-house lawyers must comply with.

Our complimentary half-day workshop will cover:

- Key themes around independence and in-house lawyer duties;
- The symbiotic relationship between the legal function and the wider business;
- Exploring and managing the tensions of being an in-house lawyer;
- Setting up for success through policy and procedure;
- The O Shaped ethical decision making model;
- Embedding the O Shaped framework into everyday decision making;
- Discussion around practical scenarios that you may need to act on.

Join us for a workshop, complete with pastries on arrival and networking lunch. The workshop will commence at 10am and run until to 1pm.

The session is open to all in-house lawyers, either individually or as an in-house legal team.
