

Monthly insurance policy wording update

The Word, February 2025

03 March 2025

For our February edition of The Word we cover a range of topics of interest from across the insurance sector.

In light of recent events, we take a look at the LA wildfires and the implications of this for the insurance industry. We also consider what lessons insurers can learn from the Buildings Insurance Survey.

We also consider the impact of two recent decisions; firstly the decision in Clarendon Dental Spa LLP, which provides useful insights into the impact of questions asked by insurers pre-inception; and secondly the decision in Hansen Yuncken v Hollard, which highlights the consequences of unclear policy terms.

Finally, we explore the recent Coca-Cola product recall and the importance of product recall coverage, and the proposal by TfL to introduce compulsory pedicab licencing and insurance.

We hope you find this edition informative and insightful. For more useful insights, you may also want to take a look at our recent Insurance Insights publication.

Tim

Contents
The LA fires: Counting the insurance cost	>
Buildings Insurance Survey: Key insights and next steps	>
High Court ruling emphasises the importance of fair presentation	÷
Hansen Yuncken Pty Ltd v Hollard Insurance: The consequences of "poor" drafting	÷
Coca-Cola recall: A reminder for insurers on product recall coverage	÷
TfL Considers Pedicab Licensing and Insurance Proposals	→

Key contact

Tim JohnsonPartner

tim.johnson@brownejacobson.com +44 (0)115 976 6557

Related expertise

Services

Coverage disputes and policy interpretation

Insurance claims defence

Policy drafting and distribution

© 2025 Browne Jacobson LLP - All rights reserved