

Public matters – May 2024

30 May 2024

Local Nature Recovery Strategies: How can they contribute to nature recovery and what are local authorities required to do?

We explain the UK Government's mandate for all local authorities to have local nature recovery strategies (LNRs) in place by March 2025.

Read our guide →

The transparency regime under the Subsidy Control Act - how it could be improved

This article summarises the transparency regime under the Subsidy Control Act 2022, the impact of non-compliance and how it could be improved.

Read more →

Managing PFI contract expiry and maintaining party relationships

With many schemes due to expire soon, this article highlights the importance of managing relationships in PFI contracts.

We include tips for mitigating the risk of a breakdown in relations, as well as steps to take should the situation decline.

Read our top tips →

How local authorities can deal with unlawful encampments

This article covers the various legal options available to local authorities to ensure best outcomes, including considering the welfare needs of unlawful occupiers.

Read our guide →

Key contact

Angela Williams

Legal Director

angela.williams@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 2785