

Shared insights: Corporate and gross negligence manslaughter in the health and care sector

📍 Online

📅 18 November 2025

This session will be chaired by Carl May Smith and Charlotte Harpin with insights from Jacqui Atkinson and Mark Barnett, all experienced partners at Browne Jacobson.

We will explore the implications of recent case law and announcements of corporate manslaughter investigations into health and care providers and their staff, and share insights on what this all means for provider responses to incidents, investigations, inquests and litigation.
