

Nigel Lyons

Partner

nigel.lyons@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 2802

Nigel specialises in all types of contentious regulatory advocacy. He has a particular emphasis on the agricultural sector, together with expertise in health and safety and environmental cases.

Nigel advises in all areas where fatal and non-fatal accidents result in criminal investigations, including farms, factory sites, government and local authority properties, maritime incidents (both on and off shore) and all types of private and commercial premises.

Nigel has advised and represented government and public bodies in successfully prosecuting cases in the Magistrates and Crown Courts, working closely with government inspectors and officials in evidence preparation including advising interviews under caution and statement preparation.

Expertise

Central government

Government

Health and life sciences

Insurance

Local government

Retail, consumer and logistics

Testimonials

"Thank you for feeling a lot more comfortable and less panicked about the whole ordeal at court. I have no doubt we would have received a much bigger fine if it had not been for your expertise."

,

"We are grateful for all your help in our dealings over this matter."

,

"I would like to say a big thank you for all your help over the last year."

,