Josh advises clients on a broad range of non-contentious commercial property matters with a particular focus on the retail occupier sector.

Josh combines technical expertise with a pragmatic client-focused approach. Josh's experience includes acting for major retail brands on acquisitions and the portfolio management of high street, shopping centre and out-of-town locations.

Josh has further acted on the acquisition and asset management of multi-let office buildings and industrial estates, as well as dealing with large-scale portfolio property finance matters.
