Louise is a paralegal in the Health Advisory and Litigation team based in the Birmingham office. She provides key legal support to the multi-disciplinary team across offices, working with NHS Resolution and their Member NHS Trusts to resolve clinical negligence claims.

Louise joined the firm in 2025, having completed a Vacation Scheme at Browne Jacobson and previously worked at a claimant firm in personal injury. She utilises this prior knowledge to manage claims at pre-action stage and assist senior colleagues on complex matters.

Louise is passionate about being 'O-Shaped' and providing the highest quality service to clients. She enjoys getting involved with community events to raise awareness of Diversity & Inclusion and volunteers with the National Literacy Trust.
