

Christine Hughes

Senior Associate

 Birmingham

christine.hughes@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 2815

Christine specialises in defendant employers' liability and public liability work comprising fast track and multi-track claims, and is experienced in matters including manual handling, occupiers' liability and highways claims.

Christine manages a portfolio of cases on behalf of insurance clients and public bodies. She's adept at taking cases from early investigations through to final hearings, providing support and expert advice to her clients throughout.

More recently, Christine has experience of working with insurers handling cyber claims following ransom attacks suffered by their policyholders.

Expertise

Services

Dispute resolution and litigation