Natasha is part of the social care team, dealing primarily with documentary analysis - ensuring a precise and cohesive review, in a succinct and accessible format.

Natasha was previously part of the motor claims team, dealing with litigated damage and personal injury claims. Natasha also has experience in pre-action disclosure applications; recovery claims; local authority, public liability and employers' liability claims.

Natasha has an excellent relationship with clients, both professional and members of the public and has received considerable positive feedback in respect of her ability to put clients at ease and explain situations in an easy to understand, jargon-free way.
