

Grace Salter

Paralegal

 Birmingham

grace.salter@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)3300451419

Grace is part of our clinical negligence team, specifically in the maternity division. Grace offers insight into the medical field through extensive experience with the NHS in a variety of administration roles. Her knowledge in medical terminology enhances our team's ability to understand and navigate complex medical-legal cases effectively.

Having served in various capacities, including clinical coding, secretarial and reception duties, Grace has a unique perspective that is crucial in helping to interpret medical documentation and facilitate clear, accurate communication between legal professionals, healthcare providers and clients. She is committed to contributing to successful outcomes by leveraging her medical knowledge in the field of clinical negligence.

Grace actively supports our firm's commitment to values, contributing to a culture of diversity and inclusion. She also embodies the O Shaped attributes, which are integral to our approach in delivering innovative and empathetic legal services.

Related expertise

Services

Clinical negligence

Health and social care disputes

Maternity services