

Laura Thorpe

Legal Assistant

 Nottingham

laura.thorpe@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 2904

Laura Thorpe is a Legal Assistant in the Health and Advisory Litigation team. Laura currently specialises in defending spinal cord and brain injury claims, as well as general claims on behalf of NHS health care providers, individual clinicians, and insurers.

Laura specialises in spinal cord and neurological injury claims, assisting in the progression of these claims.

Laura is keen on developing opportunities to network with neurological health care clinicians and providers and is assisting the Adult Neurological Injuries team by helping grow their portfolio of specialist contacts.

Related expertise

Clinical negligence

Integrated healthcare systems

Medical treatment in health

Professional indemnity

Safety and learning in healthcare