

James Byrne

Legal Director

 Dublin

james.byrne@brownejacobson.com

+353 15743924

James practices in the area of corporate and commercial law and has over twelve year’s experience in a wide range of transaction including mergers and acquisitions, restructurings, venture capital, and private equity transactions and shareholder agreements.

He has been involved in many of Ireland’s most significant M&A transactions in recent years and has experience across a range of sectors including technology, life sciences, healthcare, retail, consultancy, education, and manufacturing.

Having worked in the Irish corporate law market for over 12 years prior to joining Browne Jacobson in March 2024, James has built a strong reputation due to his commercial understanding of his client’s needs and a solution driven approach.

Related expertise

Services

Commercial law	Directors and officers	Partnership disputes
Company secretarial services	International	Partnerships and LLPs
Corporate	Legal project management	Private equity services
Corporate legal liability	Mergers and acquisitions	Restructuring and insolvency
Corporate transactions for health	Mergers, acquisitions and funding	Transaction support and due diligence