

Claire Stripp

Head of Knowledge and Learning

 Nottingham

claire.stripp@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 2134

Claire is our Head of Knowledge and Learning and a member of our People leadership team. Claire's remit covers learning and development, knowledge management and legal AI. Claire is committed to enabling everyone who is part of Browne Jacobson and shares its values to thrive, with a fulfilling career that plays to their strengths, develops their potential and flows with their life.

A corporate lawyer by training, Claire is passionate about the law and legal practice and has always worked in law firms. Claire is a member of the O Shaped Board and is proud to support Browne Jacobson to be O Shaped: Claire always aims to have an Open mindset, be Original and Optimistic and take Ownership of Opportunities.

Claire enjoys connecting contacts and colleagues and, as the first generation of her family to go to university, is truly committed to social mobility.