

Annemarie Thomas-Banyard

Associate

 Birmingham

annemarie.thomas-banyard@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)3300452916

Annemarie is an associate who has over nine years of experience in public law and has specialised in education law since 2017. Annemarie advises on a broad range of education law issues, having advised maintained schools, academies and a local authority as the lead Education Solicitor prior to joining Browne Jacobson in 2022.

Annemarie regularly advises clients on pastoral matters including admissions, exclusions, policies, safeguarding, complex complaints, governance, social media issues including defamation, school transport, barring visitors, parental responsibility and other parent issues, special educational needs and disability, equality issues and discrimination.

In addition to advisory work, Annemarie has a passion for writing legal articles and delivering training.

---

Expertise

Sectors

Academy trusts and schools

Education

---

Testimonials

Directories

Volunteering