Kerren has over 20 years' experience in all aspects of employment law, with particular interest in matters of strategic and organisational importance including restructures, mergers, executive terminations, high profile and sensitive matters, disputes and governance issues. Kerren is recognised as a leading individual in Legal 500. The published feedback was that she has a "fantastic knack of getting to the nub of an issue and then follows it up with clear advice" and is also described by clients as "exceptional".

Kerren supports the firm's national Government team and given her expertise, Kerren also advises on highly confidential public sector investigations including the investigations in respect of senior employees and statutory officers' conduct.

Testimonials

Directories

"Kerren Daly is excellent in her knowledge, professionalism, and in giving practical advice that can be used in the workplace."

Legal 500 2022,

"Highly responsive and detailed advice that effectively supports our Human Resources strategy. Kerren Daly is very experienced and effective, understands our sector and its challenges, and is able to offer considered advice and support that is contextualised to our forward strategy."

Legal 500 2021,

"I have a lot of trust in Kerren Daly, who understands the challenges faced by the C suite and provides both robust advice and effective sounding board to develop effective HR strategies, particularly in contentious situations. Kerren is my go-to person in this area without a doubt."

Legal 500 2021,

"Kerren has been invaluable since we engaged with Browne Jacobson. Her support, guidance and advice are balanced and outcome-driven, providing guidance that balances risk and is delivered in a manner that is understandable to non-legal practitioners."
