Natasha supports the delivery of the firm's events and webinar calendar executing over 200 internal, external, virtual, hybrid and in-person events. Some of Natasha's key projects are the planning and delivery of our online Mock Inquest training programme and the delivery of our EMLS Conference in partnership with East Midlands Lawshare.

Natasha is an experienced senior events executive with over 10 years' experience in customer facing roles. Before joining the Front of House team at Browne Jacobson in Nottingham, Natasha worked with Emirates, flying worldwide as a flight attendant. Natasha's inclusive and collaborate attitude, along with her commitment to building strong relationships in the wider firm are a clear driving force for her successes.
