Timeyin is a first-year trainee solicitor in our London Office. She is currently sat in the Employment Team, supporting the team with resolving employment disputes for employers of all sizes, from start-ups to multinationals.

Prior to joining the Employment team, Timeyin worked in our Financial and Professional Risk Team where she supported the team in its provision of legal services involving the Lloyd's and London Market assisting on various matters including arbitrations, mediations, and litigation proceedings.

Timeyin joined Browne Jacobson as a trainee in September 2023 bringing with her experience she gained from working as a paralegal in a private wealth team at an international law firm. Timeyin is experienced in drafting, research, and analysis. These skills are evidenced by her contribution to various articles such as a note on Aercap's Settlement of their Russia Aviation Claim which is also published on Law360.

Timeyin is also passionate about diversity and inclusion schemes, a quality that aligns with the firm's ethos and commitment to improving social mobility within the legal sector. This dedication has led her to become a REACH and FAIRE mentor within the firm, supporting the firm's goal of making the legal sector more diverse.

She completed her First-Class Scottish Law Degree at the University of Edinburgh before completing her Graduate Diploma in Law at the University of Law where she obtained a Distinction.
