

Our recent deals

Advising Thincats in relation to its £2.5m of growth capital funding to arcade bar operator NQ64 to support its plans for further expansion across the UK.

Advising Natwest in relation to its £15m funding package to Chorley based travel firm Alfa Leisureplex to continue its post pandemic growth plans.

Advising Virgin Money in relation to its significant new funding package to Wellburn Care Homes to support its future growth.

Advising Avonside Energy Limited, a leading provider to the housebuilding sector of solar panels, on its invoice finance facilities provided by IGF.

Advising Virgin Money in relation to its loan facilities to a building supplies business in the North of England to assist with two separate acquisitions.

Advising Access to Music, an Apiary Capital portfolio company, on its refinancing with Santander.

Advised Lloyds Development Capital in connection with its significant private equity investment in Blis Group.

Browne Jacobson LLP 2

Contact us

graham.ball@brownejacobson.com +44 (0)796 655 4143 Connect with me on Linked in

Graham Ball Partner

Graham heads up the Browne Jacobson Manchester banking & finance team. Graham advises both lenders and Graham advises both lenders and borrowers on all types of debt finance transactions including acquisition finance, asset based lending, real estate finance and debt restructuring. He also has extensive experience advising corporate clients and private equity houses on sponsored transactions. He is well connected in the Manchester market and acts for a wide range of banks, corporates, private equity houses and alternative debt funders.

A highly personable team.
Enjoyable to work alongside whilst also carrying out work in a professional and highly competent manner.
Communicate well throughout a transaction and the depth of team means that there is always someone to pick up work to meet tight timescales when required.

Legal 500

Browne Jacobson LLP 3

